6. On or about November 4th, 2020 approximately one month after the case was filed, Compu-Link Corporation d/b/a Celink as Servicer for PHH Mortgage Co (“mortgagee”) filed for relief of the automatic stay.
7. Although Debtor’s Counsel made Debtor aware of the filing of this motion, Debtor did not realize the importance of the motion and did not contact Counsel in order to file an answer and timely defend this motion.
8. Because the motion was not defended, mortgagee was granted relief of Stay by default on November 25, 2020.

17. Debtor is also considering selling the property in order to realize the equity therein, and would be able to make the mortgagee whole at the time of sale.
18. It is humbly requested that an Expedited hearing be set on this Motion due the fact that a sheriff's sale of the Debtor's property is set for January 5, 2021.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor humbly requests that this Court grant Debtor's request for an expedited hearing, and reinstate the Automatic Stay as to Compu-Link Corporation d/b/a Celinek as Servicer for PHH Mortgage Co.
